... Life Brighter

Torrance Jaycees adopted young Yoo Soon Ho, who had just come to the orphanage with tuberculosis of the spine.

Doctors had just started treatment on Yoo and through the help of the local organization his treatments were accelerated and now, though he is hunchbacked and will always have a limp, the tuberculin condition has cleared, according to reports received here.

In October, 1962, the Jaycettes of Torrance held a rummage sale and donated to the Jaycees the profit of over $100 to help with the support of the youngster.

This year, $50 from recent projects, has been given to the Jaycees to be sent to the aid of Yoo Soon Ho.
